

Dr. Todd M. Frye PhD, LCPC, LCMFT
Director of Counselor Education
Mid America Nazarene University

Dr. Frye has been working in the field of counseling for almost 15 years. He has served as a full time Faculty member at three Universities, President of the Idaho Counseling Association, owner and Clinical Director of a Life Counseling Center and President of Church Purity; a non-for-profit organization that works with churches to address sexual purity issues.

Dr. Frye serves as Director of the Counselor Education Program at MidAmerica Nazarene University and runs a private practice specializing in work with couples and issues of sexual struggles and addictions.

Prior to his time at MNU, he was a professor for four years at Northwest Nazarene University.

Dr. Frye received his doctorate in Counselor Education and Counseling with an emphasis in marriage and family therapy from Idaho State University.

His specialized training includes parent-child and couple attachment, sexual addictions, and couples work. Todd has specialized training in Emotion Focused Therapy for couples and speaks and writes on areas related to these topics.